FADE IN ON:

INT. SUPERMARKET -DAY

Shoppers push carts around, loading up on various items.

Store clerks fill a shopping cart with whole fish. They PLOP as they land in the basket.

CLERK

Will there be anything else?

A PENGUIN sits in the cart. He grabs a fish and eats it.

The cart rolls away. The clerk looks at it, puzzled.

The cart makes its way, seemingly self-propelled.

The Penguin finishes the fish, he tosses the bones on the floor.

An ELDERLY SHOPPER slips on it and falls--

--THUD!

The cart rolls through the freezer section. The Penguin eats more fish. People look at him as he passes them.

Leaving the freezer section, the Penguin's cart BUMPS into an elderly woman's cart. He gives the woman a very dirty look.

His cart rolls away. He reaches for another fish only to realize that there aren't anymore.

He climbs from the cart and walks toward the registers. He grabs a soda from a small refrigerator. He leaves a dollar with the CASHIER.

PENGUIN

Just this.

He walks toward the door, opening the soda bottle.

The cashier looks at him, confused.

FINAL FADE OUT.
